THE ENDORSED

May 21, 2025

The May 14 order does alter Defendants' deadline to answer or otherwise respond to the complaints. This is why I set the schedule that I did, with adequate time set out for opposition papers and replies. To the extent there is overlap, Defendants may reference their motion papers in their subsequent opposition papers. The schedule

Re: American Council of Learned Societies v. National Endowment for the Humanities, No. 25 Civ. 3657 (CM) and The Authors Guild v. National Endowment for the Humanities, No. 25 Civ. 3923 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

5925 (CM)
Collen M. H.

5/22/22

This Office represents the Defendants in the above-referenced cases, which the Court consolidated. Case No. 25 Civ. 3657 (CM), Dkt. No. 52. We write respectfully to request an extension of Defendants' deadline to file any cross motions. See id.

The Court’s Order provides that “[i]f the Government wishes to make any cross motions, it must do so by May 30, 2025,” and also that “[r]esponsive papers in opposition to the preliminary injunction motion(s) are due on June 5, 2025.” See id. Defendants anticipate that the arguments in any cross motions they may file will overlap significantly with arguments Defendants will make in opposition to the preliminary injunction motion(s). Accordingly, Defendants respectfully request an extension of six days, to June 5, 2025, of their deadline to file any cross motions. All other deadlines in the Court’s May 14, 2025, Order would remain the same. Plaintiffs in both cases consent to this request. This is Defendants’ first request for an extension of this deadline.

In addition, in the event that Defendants do not choose to move to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaints by May 30, 2025 (or, if the Court grants the requested extension, by June 5, 2025), Defendants do not understand the Court's May 14, 2025, Order to alter their deadline, per the Federal Rules, to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiffs' complaint.¹ In case Defendants' understanding is incorrect, they respectfully request the Court's clarification on this point.

¹ This Office was served with the complaint in American Council of Learned Societies v. National Endowment for the Humanities, No. 25 Civ. 3657 (CM), on May 13 and was served with the complaint in The Authors Guild v. National Endowment for the Humanities, No. 25 Civ. 3923 (CM), today, May 15. Accordingly, Defendants' deadline to respond to the complaints is July 14, 2025. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(2).

We thank the Court for its consideration of these requests.

Respectfully submitted,
